

“The Empire Strikes Back”

SPORTS WEEK 2006 AT IIPM, Hyderabad

Success is never final. Failure is never fatal. It is courage that counts

The week started of with Table Tennis and chess competitions where about 60 students had to compete with each other, these events where held in IIPM Campus. Every Student had to prove themselves better from one another.

Table Tennis

Chess

Inspiration to compete, eagerness to win the match where seen throughout in the dome, Apart from Table Tennis, chess and pool few traditional games like pittu, Dog and the Bone, Tug of War, Treasure Hunt where few games which attracted most of the students.

Pittu

Tug of War

Dog and the Bone

The most awaited game of all was football, where in all the batches took part. They were very much eager to prove that their section was the best, and the commendable team took away the medal with fame.

Foot ball

All the events through out the week have been a great motivation to the students to revive their capabilities, and understand how to act in stressful situations.