

IIPM, A' bad welcomes students with a BANG!!!

"Moonwalk", freshers welcome party for the batch 2008-2010 was on May 23rd, 2008 at Fire & Flames Disco, Ahmedabad. It was an evening full of masti, dhamaal, fun and of course music. The students enjoyed the party with some foot-tapping chartbusters played by DJ –Arnaav. "Black Beauty" was the theme of the party which added to their tempo. Soon everyone hit the dancing floor and the tempo reached a crescendo.

The freshers had a great time dancing to Bollywood chartbusters, DJ Arnaav kept on changing the mood and the tempo by playing the hit numbers back to back. Everyone danced like maniac, enjoying every moment of the party. There were loads of pictures taken by the students posing like model and heroes of IIPM. They danced on hit tracks like, "chaliya chaliya, Beedi Jalaye, Zara Zara Touch me touch me and Punjabi songs. The students heat the floor with there jhatkas and matkas.

We also had Mr. Fresher and Ms. Fresher who stole our hearts with their dashing personality. Dance was followed by delicious dinner. Students enjoyed the food as much as they enjoyed dancing on the floor. It was a party the students are not going to forget in a long time.

"Truly it was an evening full of fun and dhamaal...."
